

ANDREA AULETTA
MILANO

Andrea Auletta is an interior designer with over thirty years of experience in the hospitality industry. He began his career in Florence, collaborating with Starhotels, and soon expanded his work to major international cities including Paris, New York, Rome, and London.

After studying Architecture in Venice, he specialized in Interior Design at IED Milan. A formative period at Andrea Branzi's studio deeply shaped his creative vision and design philosophy.

In founding his own studio, Andrea broadened his focus to include luxury hotels, private residences, and product design always with a bespoke, sustainability-driven approach. His commitment to environmental responsibility is exemplified by Milan's E.c.ho. Hotel, awarded Best Sustainable Hotel in Europe in 2012.

Today, his work centers on well-being, creating spaces that blend aesthetics and functionality with a sense of balance and harmony. Attention to materials, lighting, and proportion ensures that every project enhances daily life and delivers meaningful, lasting experiences tailored to each context.
